What we are seeking in family for Johannis

Johannis, is a delightful, charming, sweet, cooperative, outgoing, considerate and highly energetic child. He enjoys playing outdoors, skiing, sledding, snowboarding. He enjoys soccer and basketball. Johannis has the ability to tug at people's heartstrings through his smile, personality and charming looks. He wants a family. He is very sad due to not being able to see his birth family but is very eager to move from his current placement into a home with a family.

He ideally would meet a family that can be available to visit with him and get to know him at his current placement and be available to him when he is ready to transition into a home.
