

A

P-2733 Financial Need

AABD assistance group must pass both resources and income eligibility tests (see Regulations 2750-2756).

A. Assistance Group1. Eligibility Test (AABD-EP)

Assistance group must include:

at least one eligible member, plus one essential person

Assistance group may include two eligible members if they are husband and wife, but no more than one essential person.

2. Proof Sources - Eligible Member(s)

Presence of eligibility member(s) is proven by presence in the household of:

an individual who passes either the age of the disability/blindness test (see Section P-2732); or a husband and wife, each of whom either the age or the disability/blindness test (see Section P-2732).

Applicant's statement of husband-wife relationship is accepted unless questionable.

3. Proof Sources - Essential Person Member

Presence of an essential person member is proven by presence in the household of:

the eligible member's spouse who: does not pass either the age or disability/ blindness test; and does not qualify for ANFC

OR

a non-spouse who does not pass either the age or disability/blindness test; and does not qualify for ANFC; and provides services deemed essential by the eligible member(s).

and by the absence of personal care services provided by any person or agency and paid for as a service by SRS on behalf of the eligible member(s).

Applicant's statement of husband-wife relationship or essential services provided by non-spouse essential person is accepted unless questionable.