Sending State: The state from which a child comes.

Visit: The purpose is to provide a child with a social or cultural experience of short duration, such as a stay in camp or with a friend or relative who has not assumed legal responsibility for providing child care services. The period of time for a visit is generally two weeks and can be extended for an additional two weeks. It may include a child's vacation from school.

Interstate Compact on Juveniles

Absconder- A person who hides, conceals, or absents himself with the intent to avoid legal process or authorized control. (For practical purposes of the compact, a juvenile on probation or parole who has absented himself or run away from the placement mandated by the supervising agency or court).

Courtesy Supervision - The delivery of services given by a receiving state and in turn reported on periodically or as needed to the sending state.

Escapee - A juvenile who has made an unauthorized flight from a facility to which he has been committed by the court.

Investigation - A legal social evaluation to determine if placement in a proposed and specified resource home/place is in the best interest of the child/juvenile and the community.

Parole - Any kind of conditional release of juveniles from an institutional setting, training school, or correctional type facility authorized under the laws of the states party hereto.

Receiving State - A state to which a juvenile is sent for supervision under provision of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles.
