Vermont residents who witness child abuse must report it. Residents who witness child abuse must report it to the Vermont Department of Public Health and Human Services (mandated reporters) even if the abuse is minor or if the child is not in their immediate family. Vermont law mandates that anyone who knows or suspects child abuse must report it to the state's child abuse hotline 1-800-649-5285 or Vermont's Children's Trust Fund.

In the event of child abuse or neglect, Vermont law mandates that anyone who knows or suspects child abuse must report it to the state's child abuse hotline 1-800-649-5285 or Vermont's Children's Trust Fund.

Please contact the Vermont Department of Public Health and Human Services for more information.